

WILL BACK JEFF FOR TEN ROUNDS

Champion Says He Will Try Hard to Put Corbett Out Within That Time.

Although the heavy-weight championship battle between Jim Jeffries and Tom Corbett is still over six weeks off, the sporting fraternity in this city have already begun to voice opinions on the probable outcome of the battle and other things in connection with the contest. At the Hotel Metropole, where all the prominent sporting men gather, the consensus of opinion is that Corbett will give his quatus by Jeffries before the bell sounds for the men to begin fighting the eighth round. George and Johnny Considine, who won $23,000 between them on "Young Corbett's" victory over Terry McGovern in San Francisco, are staunch admirers of Jeffries, and they claim they will wager $10,000 on Jeffries to win the big battle. Before Jeff left for the coast he told them he would try to beat Corbett in ten rounds, and to bet every dollar they could spare that he would surely get the decision.

"Young Corbett's" Next Fight.
"Young Corbett," who knocked out Hughie Murphy in Boston on Thursday night, will engage in another battle in the latter city on Monday night. He will tackle Jimmy Briggs, of Chelsea, who is regarded as the feather-weight champion of New England. They will meet for fifteen rounds before the referee A. C. Briggs.

Walsh Beats Agala.
Andy Walsh, the South Brooklyn middle-weight, suffered his second defeat at the hands of Mike Schreck, the Cincinnati fighter, before the West End A. C., of St. Louis, on Thursday night.

Walsh thought the referee had given him the worst of the decision in their first fight, which resulted in the club bringing them together again. Schreck outpointed and outgaited Walsh, just as he did before, and Referee Sharpe declared him the winner. Walsh does not class with Schreck.

O'Brien Beats Bonner Easily.
"Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien is now the legitimate middle-weight champion of Pennsylvania. He met Jack Bonner, the clever fighter of Summit Hill, Pa., in a ten-round bout at Mauch Chunk, Pa., on Thursday night and easily bested him. This was the fourth battle they have fought, and on occasion of all that the much-disputed question as to which of them was the champion of that State. O'Brien outgaited and outpointed him in every round and almost had Bonner out in the last round.

Atlet to Fight Herrera.
Abbe Atlet, the clever feather-weight of California, who had the misfortune to have his contest with Terry McGovern called off, owing to the latter's sickness, has succeeded in getting on a match for after considerable trouble. The man he will meet will be Aurelia Herrera, the Mexican feather-weight, who is coming to the front so fast. They will try conclusions in a twenty-round bout before the Butte (Mont.) Athletic Club.

Manion Favorite Over Yanger.
The betting on the Hanlon-Yanger fight, which will be held Tuesday night at the Hotel Metropole, is in favor of Manion.

DAVE SULLIVAN'S STATE ISLAND'S BIG ROAD RACE

Crookley Boyle Had a Shade of Better of the Six-Round Fight in Philadelphia.

(Special to The Evening World.)
PHILADELPHIA, June 27.—Dave Sullivan made his reappearance in this city last night when he met Crookley Boyle in a six-round bout before the New Central Athletic Club. The bout was a hot one from the start, but the different styles of fighting of the two men caused many of the spectators to go away dissatisfied.

Sullivan adopted bulging tactics. He bore in all the time and tried hard to land a knockout, while Boyle followed his usual style and used his tantalizing jabbing. He had Sullivan bleeding from the nose and mouth. Dave was made clean through and through. He forced several times as came within an ace of landing his right, but Boyle was wary and kept out of harm's way.

Sullivan started in to bring the bout to a speedy conclusion. He got home twice on Boyle's face, but the Germantown boxer returned the blows for one. At one time Boyle landed five blows on the nose in succession without receiving a blow in return. Boyle held Sullivan's glove and the Irish-American smashed his man twice hard in the face.

Boyle lost his temper, and for a time forgot his habitual caution and Sullivan got home several times with telling blows. In the fifth round Sullivan forced the fighting and had Boyle worried, but the local man too clever to get into any serious trouble. In the last round Sullivan was wild and tried hard to land a knockout blow, but failed.

CARSEY'S "METS" MEET WILLIAMS A. NINE AGAIN.
Game at Equitable Park To-morrow Should Be Closely Contested.

The game scheduled for to-morrow at Equitable Park between "Kid" Carsey's Metropolitan youngsters and the Williams A. A. nine promises to be one of the hardest-fought games seen at this park since the season opened. When these players met before the contest last season, they played a very close game, the "Mets" winning by the score of 6 to 5.

Baseball in East New York.
The Brighton A. C., champions of Brooklyn, will play the Red Cross A. C. to-morrow at Brighton Park, Cleveland street and Pitkin avenue.

CORNELIUS FELLOWES, JR. AND HIS WIFE. FOR WHOSE SAKE HE BRAVED FATHER'S ANGER.

YOUNG FELLOWES BUYS RACE-HORSE

Cornelius, Jr., Whose Marriage Led to Estrangement from His Father, Bids In One of Aste's Colts in Selling Race.

Cornelius Fellowes, Jr., who was disowned three years ago by his father, the clubman and Secretary of the Coney Island Jockey Club, and who has been acting as betting commissioner at the tracks ever since, has done so well that he is going in for racing on his own account.

The first intimation of it came yesterday when he bid in Valour at the Sheepshead Bay track after the colt had won the last race.

When Valour was offered to be sold for $1,000 young Fellowes bid with $200 and $300 advances till he reached $4,000. A. L. Aste, owner of the colt, protected the youngster, who has bid till the bidding price was reached. The "boot-black king" then turned to young Fellowes with a sneer and said: "You can have him."

Fellowes said later: "I have bought the colt for myself."

It was noticed that Jesse Lewishaw, the banker for whom Fellowes acts as betting commissioner, was an interested spectator of the bidding. This gave rise to a report that the colt had been bought for him.

Young Fellowes's wife was Miss Nathalie Rogers, a Philadelphia girl.

MUNROE WILL MEET PLENING ON THE MAT.

Gracco-Roman Wrestler Contracts to Throw Miner Four Times.

John Plening, the wrestler, will meet Jack Munroe, the Butte miner heavy-weight fighter, in a contest at the Academy of Music next Wednesday night. This will be Munroe's second experience in a wrestling match in this vicinity. He gave Tom Jenkins, the champion wrestler, a hard tussle at Madison Square Garden a few months ago and was awarded the decision over Jenkins, as the latter failed to throw him four times in an hour.

According to the conditions of the match between Plening and Munroe, Plening is to throw Munroe four times in an hour or lose the match. Munroe is confident Plening or no other wrestler can down him four times in an hour.

MUNROE ANXIOUS TO WRESTLE SHARKEY.

If Miner Pugnacious Wins Bout from Plening Wednesday He Will Be Matched with the Sailor.

If successful in his coming wrestling match with John Plening, which takes place at the Academy of Music on next Wednesday night, Jack Munroe, the Butte miner pugilist, will endeavor to get on a match with Tom Sharkey, who has been meeting with great success on the mat. Sharkey and Munroe were to have met in a six-round encounter at Butte, but the match failed to take place.

With others Mr. Meyer, who was a bacteriologist, was sent up the Hudson to make an analysis of the water of the river above the tide line and report on its availability as a source of water supply.

Mr. Meyer was twenty-three years old and lived with his family at No. 28 Briggs avenue, Brooklyn. He was directly under the supervision of Chief Chemist Whitpole and was one of the first men appointed after the commission was formed to investigate the water supply.

At the races yesterday he had climbed to the top of the grandstand on the shore. Above him a party of men, in an effort to get a better view of the race, came down upon him, knocking him to the ground and breaking his neck. His body was brought home to-day.

DALY BLAMES IT ALL ON ASTE

"Father Bill" Says Owner Is Sore Because He Lost When Michaels Rode Torchlight.

"Father Bill" Daly was asked yesterday if he had anything to say respecting the charge made by Jockey Michaels that Daly gave him a mound on a "dead one."

"What did he say?" asked Daly, innocently.

"He said you put him up on a 'dead one,' that had no chance; that you knew it when you gave him the mound, and that he never would ride for you again."

"Sho!" said Daly. "Did he say all that? Now let me tell you. It's all a lie. Michaels never said no such thing. It's all that bootblack feller. He had a bet on the mare, and he got sore because she didn't win. He's the one that's doing all this talking."

"But was Torchlight a 'dead one'?"

"Now child, I bet $30 on the mare myself. Would I do that if she had no chance? You don't see 'Father' throw away any money on dead ones, do you? Michaels is all right. He knows the mare spit her hoof in the race, and that's what beat her. Michaels wants to ride my horses because I give him winners, but the bootblack won't let him. It's all a lie."

The bootblack referred to is Tony Aste, who has been plotting to secure shoe-polishing privileges in big office buildings in the city. He came upon the turf several years ago, and was fortunate from the start. He is a clever judge of a horse, and was much in the public eye two years ago as the man who owned Nasturtium and sold him to William C. Whitney for $50,000.

Aste's Good Crop of Two-Year-Olds.
This year Aste has a very fair crop of two-year-olds. Montana King is reputedly the best of the lot at odds of 100 to 1. He won on Thursday with Goldspiel at 20 to 1, and his two-year-old Valour won the last race yesterday.

Valour, by the way, was bid up to $1,000 and sold to Cornelius Fellowes, Jr. So much for Aste. Despite "Father Bill's" assertions, Aste did not make any charges against the Hartford turf. As a matter of fact, he refused absolutely to discuss the matter.

"Go see the boy," he said. "He will tell you the truth in the matter."

Michaels personally made the charges against Daly, and he says he will never ride for him again. It was expected that this would be an inquiry into the matter by the stewards of the track, but there was none. Here is a direct charge by a jockey, and not a case where circumstantial evidence arouses suspicion.
